Lansky starring Mike Burstyn

Wednesday-Sunday, January 20 - 24, 2010

Parker Playhouse

Inspired by the book "But He Was Good To His Mother" by Robert Rockaway, Lansky, according to press notes, "imagines the notorious businessman and gangster who masterminded some of the most ingenious wealth managements systems of his day, struggling to reconcile his material successes with his desire to gain Israeli citizenship, live out his days in the Promised Land and ultimately be buried next to his beloved grandfather in Jerusalem. With brutal honesty he subjects himself to an unsparring first degree in which he asks himself if his pursuit of the American dream and first-generation assimilation in this culture are worth the price he paid, and, more profoundly, if it is possible for him to be a good Jew and also a good American.
