What Happens In Our Play?

Are You My Mother? is a musical comedy based on the popular children's book of the same name by P.D. Eastman.

While Mother Bird is away hunting for food, Baby Bird cracks out of her shell and finds herself alone in the nest. But she is not alone in the forest. A Construction Worker is in the process of clearing trees—and Baby Bird's tree stands right next to the bulldozer!

A Woman Protester prevents the steam shovel from knocking down Baby Bird's tree, but the tree is shaken and Baby Bird falls out of her nest.

Alone, just out of the egg, Baby Bird is lost in all senses of the word. She only knows one thing: she must find her mother.

While stumbling through the neighborhood, she encounters Hen, Kitten, and Dog. All three realize that they, too, are lonely.

The animals find that they make more progress towards their goals when they join together. With determination—and the help of her friends—Baby Bird finally finds her mother.

Can You Help Baby Bird Find Mother Bird?

Letter to Families

Dear Family,

Today I saw a live musical theater performance of Are You My Mother? It was presented by ArtsPower National Touring Theatre. ArtsPower is a theater company from Cedar Grove, New Jersey.

This musical play was based on the children's book by P.D. Eastman. The story was about a baby bird who hatches while her mother is out looking for food. The baby bird leaves the nest to look for her mother. She makes a lot of new friends and learns a lot, but she still likes home best.

Attending a live performance is very different from watching a television show or a movie. Please ask me about my favorite characters. I can tell you all the things I remember best.

Love,
