Paul Taylor Dance Company

March 19 & 20
Amaturo Theater

Blending natural movement with complex patterns and rhythms, Paul Taylor Dance Company performs its signature masterwork of American dance, “Esplanade.” Set to the music of Bach’s Violin Concerto No. 2, this one-of-a-kind, fearlessly experimental performance transforms the simplicity of ordinary actions such as walking, running, and skipping into an elaborate contemporary piece. The program also includes other works.

Les Ballets Trockadero de Monte Carlo

April 7
Parker Playhouse

Toeing the line between high art and high camp, Les Ballets Trockadero de Monte Carlo is an international phenomenon of 16 all-male, beloved, burly dancers. Celebrating their 40th anniversary, these masterful dancers continue to perform parodies of famed ballet classics like Swan Lake and Le Corsaire. The “Trocks,” as they are affectionately known, boast a wicked, comedic sense of humor with respect for true classical dance.

Sensory-Friendly Performances

Arts Ballet Theatre

Sensory-friendly performance of

The Nutcracker

December 15 at 1:00 PM

Parker Playhouse

The Broward Center presents its first “sensory-friendly” dance performance with this modified, shortened version of the holiday classic ballet, The Nutcracker. This performance is intended to create a welcoming and supportive environment for children and adults on the autism spectrum as well as individuals with other sensitivity issues or developmental disabilities. Slight adjustments have been made to the production including reduced sound levels, no flashing or strobe lights and minimal special effects.

The Broward Center offers a variety of sensory-friendly performances. For more information, visit BrowardCenter.org/accessibility.

The Broward Center’s sensory-friendly programming is made possible through the generous support of The Taft Foundation. Special thanks to Theatre Development Fund’s Autism Theatre Initiative for serving as an advisor, www.tdf.org/autism.
