MY VISIT TO THE BROWARD CENTER

I will be going to the Abdo New River Room at Broward Center to see a performance. I have tickets to watch:

When I get to the Broward Center, I will come from the parking garage across the street or I will be dropped off at the top of the hill at the Amaturro Theater.

OR

Across the street parking garage

Top of the hill: Amaturro Theater

If I am parking in the garage, I will make sure to pay for my parking by using the  "ParkMobile" signs.

If I am coming from the parking garage, then I will walk to the top of the hill towards Amaturro Theater.

Once I get to the top of the hill, I will walk to the box office.

Box Office

There will be cars and people in line. It might get noisy too, but I will stay with my group and patiently wait for my turn to show the ticket.

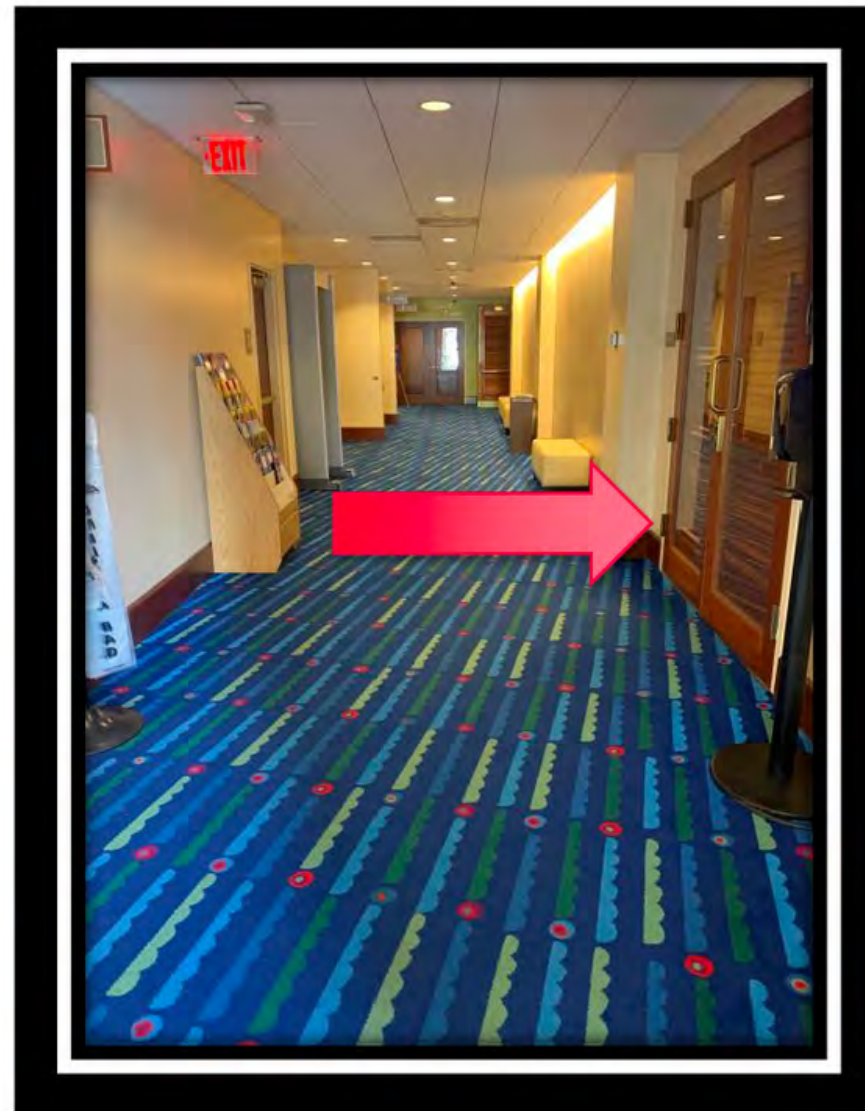

Once I get to the box office, I and everyone in my group will show our tickets before going into the theater.

After I arrive at the Broward Center, I will walk to the door next to the Amaturro Theater, and walk straight through the lobby to the Rose Miniaci Education Center.

If I need help, I can ask an usher wearing a white shirt, red tie, and black pants. If I am lost, the usher can help me find my seat, restroom, or even my group.

Ushers

While sitting, there will be some space between me and other groups of people. I can walk around in the room if needed.

After I sit down in my seat, the lights will become dim, but there will still be enough light to see around the room. I have nothing to be scared about.

Before the show starts, someone will come on stage and make an announcement.

The show is fun! I can laugh, dance, and clap during the show while staying in my seat.

I can take a break at any time if I tell my parents or group. Then they will take me to the ABA Centers of Florida Sensory Quiet Room.

I will follow the signs to the ABA Centers of Florida Sensory quiet room. I can stay there until I am ready to go back to my seat and continue watching the show.

When the show gets too loud, I will use a pair of headphones that will make me feel more comfortable. I can also use a fidget toy while watching the show in my seat.

After the show ends, I will clap for the the actors to show that they did a good job.

When the show is over, I will follow instructions to meet with the actors. I may have to wait in line before I can take a picture with my group.

I can express “thank you” to the ushers and actors for making me and my group feel welcome.

I had so much watching the show at the Broward Center!
I can come back again for another show!
