INTERNET SENSATION AND COMEDY CENTRAL STAR BO BURNHAM BRINGS COMEDY TOUR TO PARKER PLAYHOUSE

Recently named by Entertainment Weekly as one of the "12 Rising Stars of Comedy"

FORT LAUDERDALE – AEG Live and the Broward Center present Bo Burnham on Saturday, March 21 at 8 p.m. at the Parker Playhouse.

Recently named by Entertainment Weekly as one of the "12 Rising Stars of Comedy," Burnham combines rapid-fire jokes, piano ballads, dance routines, lyrically dexterous songs and hilarious one-liners into performances that are the antithesis of the typical one-man-and-his-mic stand-up.

Burnham's first CD/DVD was released through Comedy Central Records and rocketed to #1 on the Billboard comedy chart after hitting #2 in Comedy Central's "Stand-Up Showdown." He was also featured in his own half-hour Comedy Central Presents and, at 18, became the youngest person to record such a special. His first one-hour special, Words, Words, Words, was taped at Comedy Central's House of Comedy live from House of Blues in Boston.

While still in high school, Burnham launched his career by posting on YouTube two songs he had written and recorded as jokes between him and his friends. Eight months and seven songs later, Bo's videos have been seen over 10 million times worldwide, generating literally hundreds of thousands of laughs.

With the Comedy Central specials, a best-selling book of poems, a sitcom under his belt and a movie in the works, 23-year-old Burnham has crammed more into his short career than many comedians twice his age and is now on tour. This event contains adult content.
