A NOTE FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

The Performance Project School of the Arts just celebrated 25 years in the business of theatrical education for youth of all ages. Once a year, our unique Mentor Program integrates adult professional actors with children and teens. The program is designed to have our students learn what it's like to be a professional working actor and model after the adult's expertise. In turn, our adult actors/mentors find fulfillment in imparting their knowledge and love for the theater.

We give thanks to the full return of theater everywhere and the continued blessings from this inspirational program.

This musical, based on the hit Christmas film, tells of the story of Buddy the Elf as he tries to fit into a place where everyone has lost their Christmas spirit. His motto is: "The best way to spread Christmas cheer is singing loud for all to hear." During this trying time, we're all singing as loud as we can.

Happy Holidays!
