THE DAILY SHOW'S HASAN MINHAJ SPENDS A NIGHT AT THE BROWARD CENTER FOR THE PERFORMING ARTS

FORT LAUDERDALE – The Daily Show correspondent and stand-up comedian Hasan Minhaj brings his Homecoming King tour to the Amaturo Theater at the Broward Center for the Performing Arts on Saturday, December 10 at 8 p.m.

Funny, thoughtful and an incredible storyteller, Minhaj takes the audience on a hilariously compelling journey through his life as a first generation Indian-American immigrant. From the awkwardness of having a foreign name during grade-school roll call to being raised by a stern father, Minhaj pokes fun at the cultural and racial differences that influenced him throughout his life. The Homecoming King tour recently returned to Off-Broadway after a sold-out run in 2015.

A featured storyteller for The Moth, Minhaj was selected by the Sundance Institute to develop his solo show and feature film at the prestigious New Frontier Storytelling Lab. His work has garnered acclaim in film, web, and television. He hosted the documentary special Stand Up Planet, produced by The Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation. His viral web series The Truth with Hasan Minhaj has been featured in countless publications including The New York Times. He has been seen on a variety of other television programs including Arrested Development on Netflix, HBO's Getting On, and @Midnight on Comedy Central.
