LIMITED SEATS REMAIN AS
HENRY ROLLINS 2016-2017 SPOKEN WORD TOUR
KICKS OFF OCTOBER 6
AT THE BROWARD CENTER FOR THE PERFORMING ARTS

FORT LAUDERDALE – Henry Rollins kicks off a multi-city spoken word tour on Thursday, October 6 at 8 p.m. in the Amaturo Theater at the Broward Center for the Performing Arts with over 80 additional dates lined up throughout North America including Los Angeles, San Francisco, Seattle, St. Louis, New York City, Vancouver BC and more. Limited seats remain for the engagement presented by AEG Live and the Broward Center.

On this tour, fans can expect Rollins to mix timely commentary on the current state of politics with anecdotes on his latest L.A. experiences, to perspective gained from his extensive world travels. Always wanting to present fans with the best possible experience, Rollins' live talking shows are known for their energy, wit, anger and humor. "Rollins is many things," says The Washington Post, "diatribist, confessor, provocateur, humorist, even motivational speaker...his is an enthusiastic and engaging chatter."

Since his last U.S. spoken word tour in 2012, Rollins has been busy, to say the least. The epitome of a workaholic, and spanning multiple genres, Henry is an actor, voice over artist, author, photographer, columnist (LA Weekly), TV host (National Geographic, History Channel, IFC), radio DJ (KCRW) and spoken word performer—having performed countless shows around the world over the last 35 years.

Rollins said, "The world is a more interesting place than ever and I am glad to be out in it. I'm looking forward to all these shows."
