DIRECTOR'S NOTE

What a joy it is to step into the imagination of Dr. Seuss — a place where elephants teach us to care, a Cat reminds us to play, and “a person’s a person, no matter how small.” Beneath the bright colors and bouncing rhymes lies a timeless truth: every voice matters. In a world that can sometimes feel divided or hurried, this story reminds us that equality, empathy, and inclusion begin when we truly listen to one another, no matter how big, small, loud, or quiet that voice may be. Beneath the bright colors and zany rhymes lies a powerful reminder that kindness, courage, tolerance, and creativity can change the world — one “think” at a time.

Our incredibly talented young actors have poured their energy, humor, and honesty into every rhyme and rhythm. They are joined by their mentors — professional actors who share the stage not only to perform, but to guide, inspire, and celebrate the next generation of storytellers. Watching them learn from each other has been pure Seuss magic.

To our crew — the unseen heroes who bring the magic of theater to life — thank you for your artistry and endless problem-solving. To our RMAEC education department, my TPP staff, and our amazing volunteers — your dedication makes this joyful chaos possible.

As the holidays approach, I hope Seussical leaves you with a smile, a song in your heart, and perhaps a new way of seeing the world — a little sillier, a little braver, a little kinder.

In true Dr. Seuss fashion; a holiday message for all...

When life feels too busy, or your grin starts to fade,

Remember the joy that the theater has made.

So thank you, dear friends, for spending this day,

May joy fill your holidays in a Seussian way!
