Know Before you Go:

- Arrive at the theater 15 to 20 minutes before show time. Allow extra time for Broward County traffic. We are unable to start a show late.
- Please stay on the bus until greeted by a SEAS usher. At that time, please give the usher your BUS document and the usher will escort you to the theater.
- Remember to watch our Know Before You Go Video:

Dear Educators,

We are excited to present this Curriculum Connection (Study Guide) as a valuable resource to support your teaching journey. This guide has been carefully designed to offer engaging and meaningful activities for use in your classroom before and after seeing a S.E.A.S. performance at The Broward Center's Amaturro Theater, The Parker, or Miniaci at NSU. Each section is structured to make it easier for you to integrate cross-curricular connections, providing a seamless experience for students to deepen their understanding while exploring the creative process.

The activities and lessons in this guide have been intentionally crafted to complement Florida's B.E.S.T. standards. By utilizing these resources, you will be able to foster a dynamic and creative learning environment while ensuring students meet key academic goals. We encourage you to adapt the materials to best fit your classroom's needs and objectives, empowering students to think critically and creatively across all disciplines.

We want to take a moment to express our sincere appreciation for the passion and dedication you bring to your classrooms every day. Your commitment to infusing art-full moments into education not only enriches your students' learning experiences but also ignites their curiosity and creativity. Thank you for inspiring the next generation of thinkers, creators, and innovators. We are truly grateful for the impact you have on your students' lives. Consider joining the Teacher's Lounge (QR code below) to be notified of special events and discounts just for Teachers.

Don't forget to distribute your S.E.A.S. stickers when you return to school (after the trip) and share the magic that is Student Enrichment Through the Arts!

Theater Etiquette

There is so much that goes into creating a show for the stage. Behind the scenes, there are people who control the lights and the sound, the sets and the props. There are directors, writers, producers, musicians, and choreographers. So many people work together to create the performance you and everyone in the audience watches.

It is helpful to remind students of appropriate audience etiquette by explaining and discussing WHY these rules of behavior are important:

- Restroom visits are best made prior to the performance.
- Listen carefully to the ushers and your teachers. This gets everyone to your seats quickly and ensures a pleasant experience.
- Turn watches and cell phones to silent.
- Walk single file, hold hand rails as you use the steps for your safety.
- Listen carefully to each performer. They are working hard to entertain and inform with lots of clues about the story.
- Refrain from TALKING. This allows everyone to enjoy the show without distraction. Sometimes we think that if we whisper it is okay. But, if everyone in the audience whispers, it becomes disruptive.
- Laugh if something is funny, but not too loudly, you don't want to miss any dialogue.
- Photography and recording are not permitted.
- Pay attention to the lighting, scenery, costumes and music. All of these elements help provide more details to tell the story in an interesting way.
- Applaud (clap) and laugh at the right moments. This shows the performers that you respect and appreciate their work.

FROM PAGE TO STAGE

An adaptation in theater is when a book, short story, novel, or even a poem is transformed into a stage performance, like a musical or play. The original story is usually kept at the core, but parts may be changed or added, such as songs, dialogue, or characters to make it work better for a live audience.

VOCABULARY OF AN ADAPTATION

Adaptation: Something that has changed so that it can be presented in another form.

Author: A person who writes something such as a book or an article.

Characters: the individuals portrayed by actors in a play or musical.

Composer: A person who writes music.

Director: A key creative figure in theater responsible for overseeing the artistic aspects of a production.

Lyricist: A person who writes the words of a song.

Playwright: A person who writes plays.

Scriptwriting: Turning narration into dialogue and scenes.

Here are 10 of the most famous stage adaptations:

Les Misérables

Sleeping Beauty

SYNOPSIS:

A sleeping princess, a spellbound Prince and more fairies than you can shake a stick at are all part of this original adaptation of the popular tale.

The evil Queen of the Fairies exacts her revenge on the royal family by sending the beautiful Princess into an everlasting sleep. To the audience's delight, more than one spell is about to be broken by the kiss of a handsome Prince.

Cleverly combining the traditional story with originality, fun and enchantment, this musical is sure to awaken any child's creativity!

Sleeping Beauty:

Who were the Brothers Grimm?

The Brothers Grimm were two brothers named Jacob and Wilhelm Grimm who lived in Germany over 200 years ago!

They loved stories and wanted to collect fairy tales that people used to tell each other out loud, especially in small villages.

These stories were passed down from parents to children, and the Grimms wanted to make sure they didn't get lost over time. Their stories were often magical, with talking animals, witches, giants, and enchanted forests.

What Were Their Stories Like?

The Grimm Brothers wrote down many famous fairy tales that you might already know, like:

Cinderella – a kind girl who goes to a royal ball with the help of magic.

Snow White – a princess who lives with seven dwarfs and eats a poisoned apple.

Hansel and Gretel – two kids who find a house made of candy in the forest.

Rapunzel – a girl with super long hair trapped in a tower.

The Brothers Grimm collected their stories by listening to people—especially older folks—who remembered fairy tales from their childhood. They didn't make up the stories themselves. Instead, they asked friends, neighbors, and storytellers to share the tales they had heard growing up. The Grimms talked to people from different towns and villages in Germany. Many of these people were women who had heard stories from their parents or grandparents. In 1812, they published their first book of fairy tales called Children's and Household Tales. It had 86 stories! Later editions had even more.

The Spinning Wheel

What's a Spinning Wheel?

A spinning wheel is an old-fashioned machine used to turn fluffy wool or cotton into thread or yarn. A long time ago, before there were factories, people (especially women) used spinning wheels at home to make thread for clothes, blankets, and more.

In Sleeping Beauty, the spinning wheel is very important. The evil fairy casts a spell that says the princess will prick her finger on a spinning wheel and fall into a deep sleep. That's why the King bans all spinning wheels from the kingdom!

But spinning wheels weren't always scary.

In real life, they were a symbol of hard work and skill.

Answer the questions below:

1. What does a spinning wheel do?
2. Why did the King ban spinning wheels in the story?
3. What happened when Sleeping Beauty touched the spinning wheel?
4. Why was spinning important a long time ago?

Student to Family Cooperative Activity Ideas:

- Create a home theater space: Dedicate a specific area in your home as a temporary theater space. It can be anywhere with a little bit of space to "put on a show". Create a cozy ambiance with lighting and comfortable seating.
- Create tickets and programs: Design and print them at home or even hand made. Deliver the tickets to family members, and the programs can include information about the performance, cast, and crew. This adds a touch of authenticity and excitement.
- Snack bar and concessions: Set up a snack bar or concessions stand with a variety of treats and refreshments. You can even create special themed snacks related to the performance you are watching.
- Interactive viewing experience: Encourage audience participation during the performance. For example, during a musical, you can sing along to the songs and clap during applause-worthy moments!
- Post-show discussions: After the performance, have a family discussion about the show. Share your thoughts, favorite moments, and discuss the themes or lessons portrayed. This can foster critical thinking and encourage creativity in your kids.
- Remember, the goal is to create a memorable and immersive experience. Adapt these ideas based on your family's preferences and the resources available to you. The key is to have fun and enjoy the theater experience in your digs!

Additional Activity Ideas:

- Memory jars: Create a memory jar with your children. Write down favorite childhood memories on small pieces of paper and put them in a jar. Each week or month, take turns pulling out a memory and sharing it. This can spark conversations and lead to further discussions about your childhood experiences, and theirs too!
- Bedtime stories: Instead of reading traditional bedtime stories, take turns sharing personal stories from your childhood. These could be tales of adventure, funny incidents, or heartwarming experiences. This can create a strong bond between you and your children as you share personal narratives.
- Encourage your kids to create their own journals or scrapbooks to document their childhood memories. Take the opportunity to share your childhood stories as you help them with their own projects. You can even contribute by adding some of your own stories or mementos to their journals.
- What was your favorite song, band or genre growing up? Play a few songs for your child/children and let them play a few of their favorites for you!
- Create traditions with your child/children!: Establish special rituals or traditions that you can share. It could be a weekly movie night, cooking together on weekends, going for a walk after dinner, or singing at the top of your lungs before bedtime.
